Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Monday 26 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry with warm sunny spells today.

Today:
Patchy low cloud mostly clearing but some may linger along the North Coast. Otherwise, mainly dry with warm sunny spells but scattered heavy showers developing in the afternoon, mainly across western counties. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Tonight:
Mainly dry at first with clear spells but showery rain will develop more widely overnight. Some low cloud will also develop. Minimum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tuesday:
A few bright spells in the east at first, otherwise cloudy with showery rain, heavy at times. Feeling a little cooler than Monday. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Much cooler and unsettled with showers or longer spells of rain, these heavy and perhaps thundery at times.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.